

Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks
Brattleboro Lodge #1499
Public Relations, Chairperson
Henry L. Farnum, PER
49 Kimball Hill, Putney, VT. 05346
(802)-387-4007 farnum@svcable.net

PRESS RELEASE

BRATTLEBORO LODGE OF ELKS has honored 3 students from Brattleboro Union High School as their STUDENTS of THE MONTH for September, 2015.

Pictured left to right:

Breanna Sheehan, Grade 12, Is the daughter of Anthony and Donna Sheehan of Putney. Breanna, is a member of 2 a cappella groups, Plays Soccer and Lacrosse, involved in the Costa Rican exchange and National Honors Society and Athletic Leadership Council. She plays the Saxophone, and plans to attend a 4 year college and continue on to Medical School. Breanna is honored by the School White House for her integrity after finding a large sum of money on the floor and turning it in at the office. Thomas Drummey, Grade 9, is the son of Michael and Maureen Drummey of West Halifax. Thomas is a member of the Fishing and Robotics Club, and enjoys Lacrosse. He enjoys Woodworking and Paintball challenges. His goals include attending College for Business Management. Thomas was nominated by Mr. Haas of the Purple House for his citizenship and reaching out to a fellow student who isolated at lunch. Peyton Eisler, Grade 12, is the daughter of Eric Eisler of Pooler Georgia, and Kim Wenc of Wilmiington. Peyton is a part of "Above the Influence". The writing Club, National Honor Society, and enjoys running and writing and reading novels. Peyton is nominated by the Career Center.